Sign-up to Volunteer by Sept. 17th –

The 96th Annual ICMA Conference is taking place in the Silicon Valley from October 17 – 20, 2010!

The International City/County Management Association (ICMA) is bringing its Annual Conference to the San Jose Convention Center in 2010! The 96th Annual ICMA Conference is taking place in the Silicon Valley from October 17 – 20, 2010.

This event will draw thousands of attendees from around the world. Silicon Valley cities are working with ICMA to present an innovative conference in San Jose—bringing together our region's history, tech-savvy industry, and extraordinary recreational opportunities—that only the Silicon Valley can provide!

To sign-up visit http://www.sanjose.org/icma/ by Friday, September 17th!

Volunteer to Participate in:

- Welcoming conference attendees at the airport, conference hotels and at the Convention Center
- Providing directional and transportation assistance
- Providing general concierge assistance
- Helping at special events, and more!

Volunteering Benefits:

- Meet government professionals from throughout the world
- Learn and have the opportunity to showcase the Silicon Valley
- All volunteers will also be provided with a volunteer resources information, name badge and conference shirt to wear while volunteering
- Light refreshments will also be available

Supplementary Benefits/Incentives for Volunteers, as follows:

Volunteer Eligibility:

- Volunteers are eligible to attend "Conference Sessions" at no-cost on the day they volunteer (Mon., Tues., or Wed.) or a later session for "pre-Conference" volunteers (Fri. - Sun.) A minimum of four (4) hours of volunteer time is required*.
  *ICMA members are NOT eligible for the no-cost session attendance.

Student Eligibility:

- ICMA Student Members (that meet the full-time student criteria) are eligible for complimentary registration to the Conference.

Volunteer Guidelines:

- Local government employees should have their volunteer participation approved by their immediate supervisor and agency
- Volunteers must be at least 18 years old
- Other restrictions may apply