Zager and Zlatnik, Vice Mayor Pease, Mayor Morrison. Noes: None. Absent: Councilmember Wasserman. Abstain: None.

- 5.1 In-Line Skating And Skateboarding: Mayor Morrison opened up consideration of the Recreation Commission referral – sign requirements and ordinance related to In-Line Skating And Skateboarding – Health And Safety Code Sections 115800 and 115800.1 – requirements for immunity from liability for injuries involving hazardous recreational activities. The City Attorney read the title of an ordinance to be introduced. On a motion by Councilmember Zager, seconded by Vice Mayor Pease, the City Council introduced and waived full reading of an ordinance, by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmembers Zager and Zlatnik, Vice Mayor Pease, Mayor Morrison. Noes: None. Absent: Councilmember Wasserman. Abstain: None.
- 5.2 Automated Red Light Enforcement System: Mayor Morrison opened the public hearing to consider award of contract to Redflex for automated red light enforcement system. Mr. William Schriever spoke about his concerns that such a system may not work and suggested alternatives. On a motion by Councilmember Zlatnik, seconded by Vice Mayor Pease, the City Council took the following actions:
1. Approved the use of an automated red light enforcement system in the City of Fremont.
  2. Awarded a five-year service contract to Redflex, by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmember Zlatnik, Vice Mayor Pease, Mayor Morrison. Noes: Councilmember Zager. Absent: Councilmember Wasserman. Abstain: None.
- 5.3 Public Hearing (Published Notice) - (Frontage Road) - (Prince Of Peace Lutheran Church, SA-99-4): Mayor Morrison opened the public hearing (published notice) to consider a general abandonment of a 7,795 square foot portion of Fremont Boulevard (Frontage Road) near the southwest corner of Eggers Drive - (Prince Of Peace Lutheran Church, SA-99-4). Mr. William Schriever spoke in opposition to requiring the church to pay for costs associated with the roadway. On a motion by Councilmember Zager, seconded by Vice Mayor Pease, the City Council took the following actions:
1. Found Street Abandonment SA-99-4, as per Exhibit "A" (Legal Description & Plat Map), to be in conformance with the relevant provisions of the General Plan because the portion of roadway proposed to be vacated is not now, nor will it be in the future, required for public street purposes. The proposed vacation is in keeping with Objective T 1.1 of the General Plan's Transportation Chapter which directs the City to make efficient use of the roadway system to provide convenient travel.
