These goals include: improved critical thinking and analytical skills, improved life skills, decrease in level of frustration, increase in help-seeking attitudes and behaviors, increase in feelings of support and care, increased self-confidence and feelings associated with well-being, decrease in attitudes and behaviors condoning violence, improved knowledge of resources and assistance available to community youth.

ICMA seeks a well-established, experienced Dhaka-based provider of counseling services (hereafter, 'service provider') to deliver group and individual counseling services to the project's youth beneficiaries and take part in other project activities where their expertise is required.

ABOUT ICMA

ICMA is an association of more than 12,000 local government practitioners committed to the pursuit of excellence in government administration and enhancing the performance of local government worldwide. Since beginning to work internationally in 1989, ICMA has gained an in-depth understanding of the challenges of improving governance world-wide, carrying out more than 400 assistance programs on five continents. ICMA fosters a community-oriented approach to addressing problems, aiming to develop healthy communities.
