

While choices are still ahead of us, with unknown consequences, we look forward with optimism. By working together, we will succeed and together we will move forward into a bright future. We ask you to join us as we make Clearwater a wonderful place to live, learn, work, and play.